'Love One Another'

COMPLAINTS POLICY

1. Introduction

Charlton House Independent School has always taken pride in the quality of teaching and is dedicated to providing the best possible education and pastoral care for its pupils and their parents/carers. There may be occasions when concern will arise and this means the school will act by having a clear, fair and efficient procedure in place. The school will try and resolve these informally but understands this may not always be possible.

If parents/carers do have a concern or complaint, they can expect it to be treated by the school with care and in accordance with this Complaints Procedure. The school publishes this Complaints Procedure on the schools' websites, and any parents/carers who request it are made aware of where it can be accessed. This policy is also available in hard copy and accessible formats on request.

If a complaint is received from parents/carers of a former pupil, this procedure will be as effective as if the complaint was initially raised when the pupil to which the complaint relates was still registered as a pupil. If stage 3 of the process is initiated, this will be because of an exception whereby a decision was made to exclude or required the removal of a pupil. Should this be the case, a review must be requested no later than 10 working days from the date of the decision.

Note: "Parent(s)" means the holder(s) of parental responsibility for the pupil about whom the complaint relates.

As a school we aim to be:

- Impartial
- Non-adversarial
- Respectful
- Confidential

This policy explains the steps that will be followed whenever an issue arises that causes concern. Any person, including members of the general public, may make a complaint about provision of facilities or services that our school provides, unless separate statutory procedures apply.

This procedure does not apply to complaints about:

- Admissions to school
- Statutory assessments of Special Educational Needs (SEND)
- School re-organisation proposals
- Matters likely to require a Child Protection investigation
- Exclusion of children from school
- Whistleblowing
- Staff grievance and disciplinary procedures
- Complaints about services provided by other providers who may use the school's premises or facilities

In these cases, there are other separate and statutory procedures.

Complaints about services provided by other providers who use the school site should be directed to those providers.

The school will not respond to anonymous complaints under this policy, however, the Headteacher and/ or Chair of Governors will consider whether the issue and fear of identification are genuine or the issue is one of child protection.

For more information on our school's provision for protecting our pupils, please refer to our child protection policy and our allegations of abuse against staff policy, both of which are available on our website.

If we cannot meet the timescales set out in our policy, we will provide a clear explanation of the reason for this along with details of the indicative timescales.

2. What Constitutes a Complaint?

A complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction with a real or perceived problem. A complaint may be about the school as a whole, specific department or about an individual member of staff. A complaint is likely to arise if a parent believes that the school has done something wrong, failed to do something that it should have done or has acted unfairly.

3. When an issue or concern first arises

If you have a concern that you would like to take up with the school you should initially inform a member of staff either in person, over the telephone or in writing. You may wish to approach your child's class teacher first as they will be best placed to help you directly or by letting you know which other member of staff you should be speaking to.

We encourage parents/carers to approach staff with any concerns they may have, and aim to resolve all issues with open dialogue and mutual understanding. We will take your concerns seriously and make every effort to resolve the matter as quickly as possible, considering what the complainant feels would put things right.

The Chair of Governors reserves the right to refer complaints that are taken straight to them back to the appropriate member of staff if it does not warrant the governing body's involvement at that point.

a. Initial informal meeting

When a concern has been received, you may receive a telephone call from the member of staff or Headteacher to discuss your concerns, or you may be invited to attend a meeting with a member of staff or the Headteacher to discuss your concerns.

If invited to a meeting, you are welcome to bring a friend, partner or, in the case of a pupil who has raised a concern, a parent along for support. It may be appropriate for a pupil to attend the meeting if their parent has raised a concern, depending on the nature of the issue.

Staff have a responsibility to ensure that you understand any future points of action that have been agreed and will make a record of what has been discussed, as well as any outcomes and a plan of action, if one has been agreed.

All staff will do their best to ensure your concerns are dealt with appropriately and efficiently, but if an agreement cannot be reached, or if you are dissatisfied with the outcome, you can make a formal complaint to the Headteacher. If your complaint is about the Headteacher you should make your complaint in writing to the Chair of Governors. Your complaint must be in writing. To aid with a formal complaint structure, there is a proforma attached at the end of this policy which we would encourage you to use.

There is no prescribed timescale for resolution at this stage given the importance of dialogue and informal discussion, although we expect to resolve most issues within 10 school days.

4. Formal Complaints

The deadline for raising a formal complaint (as recommended by the DfE) is 3 months after the incident. We will ensure however, that we make exceptions where appropriate, at the discretion of the Headteacher or Chair of Governors, if appropriate.

In order to ensure complaints are dealt with efficiently and effectively, Charlton House Independent School deals with formal complaints in three stages.

a. Stage 1 – Complaint heard by the Headteacher

If you feel that your concern has not been dealt with as you would like, are unhappy with the outcome of your informal meeting or feel that the issue is serious enough that it warrants it, you can make a formal complaint to the Headteacher.

The Headteacher will acknowledge your complaint in writing or offer a full response within 5 school days. If further investigation is required, the Headteacher will acknowledge receipt of your complaint within 5 school days and will advise you that a full response will be provided within 20 school days.

The Headteacher may invite you to attend a meeting to discuss your complaint and possible solutions, or to explain what has happened or will happen as a result of your complaint.

The Headteacher will keep a record of all interactions with you and other staff, meetings and decisions made in reference to your complaint.

If your complaint is about a member of staff, the Headteacher will talk to that employee and invoke the relevant procedure if required. It will not be appropriate to inform you of the outcome of any investigation in relation to an individual member of staff.

The Headteacher will respond to you in writing within 20 school days of receiving your complaint outlining their full response to your concern, and any action that has or will be taken. If the Headteacher has decided not to take any further action, they will explain what they have decided and how they reached the decision. You will also be advised of your right to take the matter further if you are not satisfied with the Head teacher's response. If your complaint is about the Head Teacher, then please move to Stage 2.

b. Stage 2 – Complaint heard by the Chair of Governors

If, having spoken to the Headteacher, you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your complaint, you should write to the Chair of Governors within 10 school days¹, outlining why you are dissatisfied and what resolution/ action you are seeking.

¹ Exceptions to this time frame may be considered

The Chair of Governors will acknowledge your complaint in writing or offer a full response within 5 school days. If further investigation is required, the Chair of Governors will acknowledge receipt of your complaint within 5 school days and will advise you that a full response will be provided within 20 school days.

The Chair of Governors may invite you to attend a meeting to discuss your complaint and possible solutions, or to explain what has happened or will happen as a result of your complaint.

The Chair of Governors will explain that the governing body has a strategic role, and is responsible for the school's strategic framework and the Headteacher is responsible for the internal organisation, management and control of the school and for advising on and implementing the governors' policies. The Headteacher is solely responsible for making day to day decisions.

This stage offers an opportunity for achieving conciliation between all parties and discussions between the Chair of Governors and the Headteacher will be key to resolving the complaint and agreeing a way forward. The Chair of Governors will decide what powers are available to governors in respect of the particular complaint. In reaching this decision, the Chair of Governors will determine to what extent the issues relate to responsibilities that:

- a) are delegated to the Headteacher by the governing body; or
- b) fall within the governing body's remit only; or
- c) are within the Head Teacher's Terms and Conditions of Employment and relate to the internal organisation, management and control of the school.

For delegated responsibilities and matters within the remit of the governing body, the Chair of Governors may look at the whole issue afresh. If the matter relates to the Head teacher's conduct, the Chair of Governors will decide whether the matter should be dealt with through the Complaints Procedure or Staff Disciplinary Procedure. Advice may be sought from the Local Authority and/or Education Personnel Services. For matters that are the Head teacher's responsibility, the Chair of Governors is empowered only to look at whether the Head teacher's decision or action was reasonable in the light of the information available at the time.

The Chair of Governors will keep a record of all interactions with you and any decisions made in reference to your complaint.

If the Chair of Governors has decided not to take any further action, they will explain what they have decided and how they reached the decision. You will also be advised of your right to take the matter further if you are not satisfied with the chair of governor's response.

c. Stage 3 – Complaint heard by governing body's complaints panel

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your complaint, you should write to the Clerk to Governors within 10 school days² of the outcome of stage 2, outlining why you are dissatisfied and what resolution/action you are seeking.

² Exceptions to this time frame may be considered

The Clerk to Governors will acknowledge receipt of your request within 5 school days. The complaints panel will usually be convened within 20 school days of receiving the request for your complaint to be heard by the governing body's complaints panel. Where it is not possible to find a mutually convenient date within that timescale, all reasonable steps will be taken to agree a time and date mutually convenient to all parties.

The main function of the complaints panel will be to:

- a) ensure the complaint has been properly handled by the Headteacher (and Chair of Governors)
- b) ensure that a sufficient comprehensive investigation was carried out
- c) ensure that the correct procedure/ policies were followed.

The panel will also review whether the Headteacher (and Chair of Governors) acted reasonably.

The Clerk to Governors will arrange and facilitate the meeting of the complaints panel. You are entitled to an independent panel to hear your complaint and the complaints panel will consist of three governors who have no former knowledge or involvement in the matter being considered. The chair of the panel will be nominated from within the group of panel members. All panel members will have access to, and will be familiar with, this complaints policy. The Clerk to Governors will confirm to all parties in writing, the date, time and venue for the meeting at least 10 school days in advance.

The Clerk to Governors will request that you supply any paperwork you feel the panel will require to consider your complaint fully. The Headteacher (and Chair of Governors) will also be requested to supply copies of their responses to the previous stages of the procedure, and any further paperwork they consider the panel will require to consider the complaint fully. Copies of all paperwork will be distributed to all parties by the Clerk to Governors at least 3 school days in advance of the meeting.

You are welcome to bring a friend or partner for support to the meeting and the chair of the panel will ensure the meeting is conducted within a relaxed atmosphere whilst keeping to the formal agenda. The Headteacher (and Chair of Governors if attending) is also invited to bring a representative or member of staff for support.

No previously undisclosed evidence relating to the complaint should be introduced during the meeting.

The Clerk will inform you (and the Headteacher and/ or Chair of Governors) in writing of the panel's decision within 5 school days of the meeting. The letter will include a summary of the issues, an outline of the main points of discussion, the reasons for the decision and the proposed actions or outcome. The panel may suggest you meet with the Headteacher and/ or Chair of Governors again to agree a way forward. The letter may set out recommendations which will be made to the governing body.

The panel's decision is the final stage in the complaints procedure. If you feel the school has acted unreasonably or has not followed the correct procedures in relation to your complaint, you may write to the Secretary of State using the following contact details:

School Complaints Unit, Department for Education,
2nd Floor, Piccadilly Gate, Store Street, Manchester, M1 2WD

5. Unreasonable Complaints

Charlton House Independent School is committed to dealing with all complaints fairly and impartially, and to providing a high quality service to those who complain. We will not normally limit the contact complainants have with the school. Operating from a position of mutual respect, we do not expect our staff to tolerate unacceptable behaviour and will take appropriate action to protect staff from that behaviour including that which is abusive, offensive or threatening.

Charlton House Independent School defines unreasonable complaints as “those who, because of the frequency or nature of their contacts with the school, hinder our consideration of their or other people’s complaints”.

A complaint may be regarded as unreasonable when the person making the complaint:

- refuses to articulate their complaint or specify the grounds of a complaint or the outcomes sought by raising the complaint, despite offers of assistance
- refuses to co-operate with the complaints investigation process while still wishing their complaint to be resolved
- refuses to accept that certain issues are not within the scope of a complaints procedure
- insists on the complaint being dealt with in ways which are incompatible with the school’s complaints procedure or with good practice
- introduces trivial or irrelevant information which the complainant expects to be taken into account and commented on, or raises large numbers of detailed but unimportant questions, and insists they are fully answered, often immediately and to their own timescales
- makes unjustified comments about staff who are trying to deal with the issues, and seeks to have them replaced
- changes the basis of the complaint as the investigation proceeds
- repeatedly makes the same complaint (despite previous investigations or responses concluding that the complaint is groundless or has been addressed)
- refuses to accept the findings of the investigation into a complaint where the school’s complaint procedure has been fully and properly implemented and completed including referral to the Department for Education
- seeks an unrealistic outcome
- makes excessive demands on school time by frequent, lengthy, complicated and stressful contact with staff regarding the complaint in person, in writing, by email and by telephone while the complaint is being dealt with

A complaint may also be considered unreasonable if the person making the complaint does so either face-to-face, by telephone or in writing or electronically:

- maliciously
- aggressively
- using threats, intimidation or violence
- using abusive, offensive or discriminatory language
- knowing it to be false
- using falsified information
- publishing unacceptable information in a variety of media platforms i.e. social media apps (Facebook, Twitter etc), news websites, newspapers

Complainants should limit the numbers of communications with a school while a complaint is being progressed. It is not helpful if repeated correspondence is sent (either by letter, phone, email or text) as it could delay the outcome being reached.

Whenever possible, the Headteacher or Chair of Governors will discuss any concerns with the complainant informally before applying an 'unreasonable' marking.

If the behaviour continues the Headteacher will write to the complainant explaining that their behaviour is unreasonable and asking them to change it. For complainants who excessively contact Charlton House Independent School causing a significant level of disruption, we may specify methods of communication and limit the number of contacts in a communication plan. This will usually be reviewed after 6 months.

In response to any serious incident of aggression or violence, the concerns and actions taken will be put in writing immediately and the police informed. This may include prohibition individuals from the school site, as deemed appropriately.

6. Governing body review and monitoring of complaints

The Headteacher will report quarterly to the governing body on the number of formal complaints received and the levels at which they have been resolved. No details identifying the complaint or any member of staff will be published.

The governing body will review and evaluate all complaints to try and ensure that similar problems are avoided in the future, learnings are taken forward and to see if they could have been managed more efficiently.

7. Staff Complaints

Staff who have a concern about a colleague or volunteer in school should refer to the whistleblowing policy which is available on our website.

The procedure for dealing with any other staff complaint or employment grievance is set out in the school's staff discipline, conduct and grievance policies which are available on our website.

8. Complaints Policy Review

The governing body of Charlton House Independent School will review this policy every 2 years, or sooner if there are any legislative changes. The governing body of Charlton House Independent School will also review this policy following a complaint panel meeting to ensure that it met the requirement to provide a clear, fair and efficient complaints procedure.
