

Writing Assessment at Charlton House

Teachers use assessment for establishing pupils' starting points and to modify teaching so that pupils achieve their potential by the end of a unit, year or key stage.

Summative Writing assessment happens 3 times a year (once per term) against end of phase expectations using the Oxford Writing Criterion Scale. Teachers look across the body of pupils' work for progress towards end of phase expectations. All teachers make consistent judgements about pupils' progress and attainment within Writing, across a year group, between year groups and across the school.

Formative assessment is used as a diagnostic tool throughout the school year. It is used to monitor pupil learning style and ability, to provide ongoing feedback and allow teachers to improve and adjust their teaching methods and for pupils to improve their learning.

At the end of the year, summative data, together with any other relevant Writing assessment data or key information, is shared and discussed with the class' next teacher.

Oxford Writing Criterion Scale

Standard 1: Reception/P1

Standard 1 can be used both for the termly formal assessment of children's writing throughout Year 1/P2 and to identify the next steps required for progress.

Essential Pre-writing skills

Before being assessed against Standard 1, children must be beginning to draw identifiable letters and/or write his/her own name.

Standard 1: Reception/P1 – end of year expectation

By the end of the Reception Year, children should be able to:

- Write three or more simple statements on a given subject that can be read without the child's help and that make sense, although letter shapes and spelling may not be fully accurate. There may be no full stops (or there may be one or more in the wrong places) and use of capitals and lower case letters may not be fully established.

Children are expected to be a 'Secure Standard 1' by the end of the Reception Year in order to be on track to meet National Expectations at the end of KS1. NOTE: Children moving up into Year 1/P2 who have not achieved against criteria 18 and 19 from Standard 1 must focus on these as a priority.

2	Can control use of ascenders/descenders and upper/lower case letters in handwriting.

5	Can vary the structure of sentences to interest the reader (e.g. questions, direct speech or opening with a subordinate clause, etc.).

13	Can use a range of punctuation, mainly correctly, including at least three of the following: full stop and capital letter, exclamation mark, question mark, comma (at least in lists), apostrophe for simple contraction and for singular possession (at least), e.g. 'John's dog', 'The cat's bowl...'
14	Can make their writing lively and interesting (e.g. provides additional detail, consciously uses humour, varies sentence length or uses punctuation to create effect, etc.).
15	Can link ideas and events, using strategies to create 'flow' (e.g. Last time, also, after, then, soon, at last, and another thing...).
16	Can use adjectives and descriptive phrases for detail and emphasis (consciously selects the adjective for purpose, rather than using a familiar one, e.g. a title: 'Big Billy Goat Gruff').

- Show variety in sentence type and structure, including the confident use of a range of sentence openings, punctuation for effect and the inclusion of additional detail and/or description.

By the end of Year 6/P7, children should be able to:

- demonstrate a wide range of the criteria in Standards 6 and 7 effectively and in a well-managed and mature way, within a single piece of totally independent writing (one and a half sides or more)
- Write with at least 98% accuracy across all aspects of their writing, e.g.
  - text type/genre
  - response to stimulus or purpose
  - basic skills
  - 'writing voice'

A secure of Standard 7 requires the production of a striking piece of writing, similar to that of a literate adult, although the stimulus may be more age appropriate. When asked, "How might this be appropriately improved?" there should be little or no improvement identifiable.

Children who are a 'Secure Standard 7' should easily meet the curriculum expectations at the end of key stage 2.
